About Homesession

Since 2007 Homesession has been a catalyst for creation in the field of visual arts, with its international residency program, and production grants for Spanish artists. In its constant effort to support artists and promote art, Homesession welcomes proposals that utilise diverse media and practices, with a strong focus on interdisciplinary experimentation.

Homesession endeavours to complement the work of the institutions in Barcelona's art scene. It provides a home for proposals that are daring and innovative in their content, as much as in their format and aesthetics, making room for the unexpected.

Homesession in order to promote the mobility of spanish artists open his Exchange program in 2014 with the collaboration of THisStudio-UK, art3-France and, since 2018, with Serbian center Belgrade Air project.
